

MEMO TO: Planning and Public Works Committee of the Whole

FROM: Judy Fani, Sr. Planner

DATE: March 12, 2019

SUBJECT: 2018-19 Comprehensive Plan Docket

I. PURPOSE ☐ For Info Only ☐ Potential Agenda Item ☒ Scheduled for Council Action

II. RECOMMENDATION

Advance the Planning Commission's recommendation – to approve the 2018-19 Comprehensive Plan Docket – to the City Council for final action on the March 19 Consent Agenda.

III. DEPARTMENT CONTACTS

Erika Vandenbrande, Planning and Community Development Director	425-556-2457
Carol Helland, Deputy Director, Planning and Community Development	425-556-2107
Jae Hill, AICP, CFM, Long-Range Planning Manager	425-556-2414
Judy Fani, Senior Planner	425-556-2407

IV. DESCRIPTION/BACKGROUND

On February 26, 2019 Council held a study session to discuss the Planning Commission-recommended docket summarized below.

Recommended for Further Consideration

City-initiated carryovers	12
Privately-initiated Proposal to carry forward	1
New City-initiated Proposals	7
New Privately-initiated Proposal	1

Not Recommended for Further Consideration

City-initiated proposals currently on docket	6
New Privately-initiated Proposals	3

Councilmembers reviewed the issue matrix, were satisfied with staff responses, and closed each issue. Staff updated the matrix to reflect Council discussion and it is included as Attachment A.

V. TIME CONSTRAINTS

Per the Growth Management Act, the ordinance for the 2018-19 docket should be adopted 365 days after the previous docket which was adopted on December 5, 2017. Continued postponement of the adoption of the docket will prevent the City from initiating the 2019-20 docket application round in a timely manner.
