Hi Cameron,

I have few questions regarding the Woodside project in SE Redmond
(<https://www.redmond.gov/1319/Woodside>).

As far as I know, there are 170 dwelling units coming up here. Do we know how many car parking lots are part of the project? Also do we know if this dwelling unit has enough playing area for the kids of all age group in the dwelling to play?

Thanks,
Arun
