

CITY OF REDMOND

2020 STATE LEGISLATIVE AGENDA

Top Priority Issues

Affordable Housing

Redmond is actively working to increase the level of housing affordability. The City is developing a Housing Action Plan to identify the actions most needed to improve housing affordability in the Redmond community. Meanwhile, the City supports the following legislative proposals:

- Extend and expand the Multi-Family Property Tax Exemption (MFTE).
- Allow existing affordable housing funding to be spent on a broader array of income levels, ranging from 0-30% area median income (AMI) to workforce housing.
- Authorize local option funding tools to address affordability; any county-imposed funding shall be allocated to the communities where funds are generated for investment in affordable housing.

Homelessness: Fund Behavioral Health Co-Responder Program

The City received a State grant from the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs in 2018, and again in 2019, to fund a mental health professional to work with Redmond police and the City's homeless outreach coordinator responding to persons with mental health issues. Redmond asks that the Legislature authorize ongoing funding to support the continuation of this Behavioral Health Co-Responder Program.

Redmond's Future Transportation Needs

Redmond supports increased funding and local options to fund city transportation systems, including pavement preservation. In the "Forward Washington" Transportation Package, Redmond requests the following investments:

- $44M for SR 520 and 148th Avenue NE Improvements – to improve the flow of traffic on SR 520 and 148th Avenue NE and increase pedestrian and bicycle safety; cost estimate is 2019 dollars.

CITY OF REDMOND

2019 STATE LEGISLATIVE AGENDA

Guiding Principles:

The City has adopted the following principles to guide the City's Legislative Agenda:

- Protect home rule and local authority: The Legislature should refrain from pre-empting the authority of local cities and communities which are closest to the citizens they serve.
- Refrain from imposing unfunded or "under-funded" mandates: It is important that the Legislature refrain from imposing new unfunded or "under-funded" mandates upon local jurisdictions unless there is adequate funding provided to implement them.
- The State should not erode local revenues and local taxing authority: As "creatures of the State," cities in Washington have only the taxing and revenue authority directly provided to them by the State Legislature. It is vital that lawmakers refrain from making decisions that erode or eliminate those revenues and the local taxing authority that is given to cities.
- The State should preserve Operating, Capital, and Transportation budget funding that flows to cities: Redmond urges the Legislature to refrain from cutting or eliminating operational and infrastructure funding for Redmond and other cities, including the Connecting Washington projects and timelines as previously scoped.
- The Legislature should reward jurisdictions that step up to implement the policy goals developed by the State, as it exercises its decision-making, particularly in grant and loan programs: Redmond is an example of a city doing the right things to implement the Growth Management Act (GMA), accommodate density, ensure the urban centers of downtown and Overlake are conducive to "transit-oriented" and pedestrian-friendly development, embrace "green building", climate-change and Vehicle Miles Traveled (VMT) strategies, etc. As it makes funding and policy decisions regarding grant and loan programs, the State should find ways to reward jurisdictions, such as Redmond, that carry out and embrace these policy objectives.
