TITLE:

Municipal Bond Overview

OVERVIEW STATEMENT:

Stacey Lewis and Deanna Gregory, partners from Pacifica Law Group (the City's Bond Counsel), will present an overview of the different types of bonds, the City's bond policies, and Council's responsibilities under the law, in anticipation of new and refunding bond recommendations. With interest rates at historically low levels, the City is pursuing taxable advance refunding of its 2013 Limited Tax General Obligation (LTGO) Bonds and its 2014 Utility Revenue Bonds for an estimated savings of $3 million. Council has also discussed the potential for a councilmanic bond for the Senior Center project. The municipal bond overview is a precursor to potential Council actions.

OUTCOMES:

The Bonds Overview presentation from Pacifica Law Group will set the stage for refunding of current bonds as well as potential new borrowing for the Senior Center. The information provided will include:

- The process and regulatory environment for issuing bonds
- The types of bonds available
- The City Council's obligations in a bond issuance

As next steps, staff will bring the potential refunding of the 2013 Limited Tax General Obligation Refunding Bonds and the 2014 Utility System Revenue Bonds to the July 27, 2021, Finance, Administration, and Communications Committee of the Whole Meeting for review and discussion. Provided for review will be the draft bond ordinances and the analysis of the potential savings. If Council agrees to move forward on the refunding recommendation, final ordinances will be brought to the August 17, 2021, Council business meeting for approval.
